Fans of Stephen King, Jack Kilborn, and Blake Crouchâ€¦ prepare to meet the Devil.

In the vine-twisted swamps of Louisiana, the shadows have teeth.

Jack Winter has spent his entire life running from something no one else can see. His childhood is his darkest secret, but after a near fatal accident along a deserted road, the darkness he was sure heâ€™d escaped rears its ugly headâ€¦ and smiles.

But this time, he isnâ€™t the only one who sees the soulless eyes of his past. This time, his six-year-old daughter Charlie leans into his ear and whispers: Daddy, I saw it too.

And then she begins to change.

Faced with reliving the nightmares of his childhood, Jack watches his daughter spiral into the shadows that had nearly consumed him twenty years before.

But Charlie isnâ€™t the only one whoâ€™s changing.

Jack never outran the darkness. Itâ€™s been with him all along.

And itâ€™s hungrier than ever.

A new breed of dark fiction: the subtlety of Seed will haunt you, and the end will wickedly satisfy.
